

BRUSSELS IS NOW IN THE HANDS OF THE GERMANS

CAVALRY OCCUPIES BRUSSELS

Germans Seize Capital of Belgium.

KING ALBERT'S ARMY RETIRES ON ANTWERP

Paris Asserts French Forces Are Meeting With Much Success in Alsace.

Paris, Aug. 21.—The German cavalry have occupied Brussels. This official announcement was made. Strong columns are following up this movement. The Belgian army is retiring on Antwerp, without having been engaged by the Germans.

Along with the announcement of the fall of Brussels the official statement says:

"Our troops have met with brilliant successes in Alsace, especially between Mulhausen and Altkirch. The Germans retreating on the Rhine left in our hands many prisoners and twenty-four guns, six of which were captured by our infantry after a sharp struggle.

"In Lorraine the day was less fortunate for us. Our advanced troops found themselves faced by exceptionally strong positions. They were forced by a counter attack to fall back in a body, which is solidly established on the Seille and along the canal from the Marne to the Rhine."

The official statement continues:

Belgians Retire on Antwerp.

"In conformity with a prearranged plan the Belgian army retreated on the entrenched camp of Antwerp, after brilliantly fulfilling its duty as dictated by the strategic situation and delaying for a fortnight the German passage of the Meuse.

"Antwerp has a double role. It is a formidable entrenched camp, fortified on most modern lines, and is the base from which the Belgian army can threaten the German flank and co-operate effectively with the allies.

"The Antwerp defenses consist of three fortifications, whose power of resistance can be heightened by flooding a large area around all the works. Antwerp is fully equipped with the most perfect appliances. To besiege the fortress the Germans would have to detach imposing forces and a large siege train. This they are not likely to do. If they do not they will be obliged to cover themselves against the operations of the Belgian army, which is intact, thanks to the skillful retreat, and augmented by the Antwerp garrison.

German Position Difficult.

"The German situation is then a difficult one, since they lack the chief postulate of a plan of march through Belgium, namely, free passage of the Meuse, a route by Liege and Namur and inaction on the part of the Belgian army."

On Germany's eastern frontier there has been considerable outpost fighting, which would indicate that the Russians are completing their work of concentration. There have been no serious collisions in this region as yet, however. Austria is too much engaged with Russia and with the need of helping Germany to make much progress in her campaign against Serbia.

No news whatever has been received of any naval movement, either in the North sea or the Mediterranean.

According to the few items of news which has been allowed to come in from Berlin something like normal conditions prevail in the German capital. The price of food is declining and now the troop movements have been completed a resumption of general work on railways is beginning.

Confirmation has been received of the report that Emperor William has ordered resistance to any effort that Japan may make to seize Kiaochow.

Another Effort for Peace.

Paris, Aug. 21.—The death of Pope Pius will be made the occasion for another effort to bring about peace in Europe. It is said that when the conclave meets in Rome to elect a new pope it will send an appeal to the warring nations for peace and will ask the United States to aid in bringing about tranquility.

Assert Germans Burned Villages.

London, Aug. 21.—A dispatch to the Central News from Brussels says that a long line of burning villages marked the German advance.

OCCUPIES JUST ONE MINUTE

Canadian House Votes $50,000,000 for War Purposes.

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 21.—A war appropriation of $50,000,000 was put through the Canadian house of commons. There was no opposition or criticism.

The prime minister, Sir Robert Borden, explained that the sum was required in financing the military organization which Canada has offered the British government and the vote was approved.

The proceedings occupied just one minute.

LATEST DEVELOPMENTS IN EUROPE.

The Germans have taken Brussels, the capital of Belgium—already rich in warfare's history and in art and culture. It was here that the Duke of Wellington danced at night and sallied forth in the morning to meet his army at Quatre Bras for the battle of Waterloo.

The German army, it was officially reported, was pressing its advantage to Brussels by throwing large numbers of troops into the city, while the Belgians were retreating unmolested on Antwerp.

French official advices stated that Mulhausen, in Alsace, had been recaptured by the French from the Germans, who are said to be retreating on the Rhine.

In Lorraine it was admitted the Germans had forced the French to fall back on their bases.

Confirmation was received of the report that Emperor William had ordered resistance to any effort to seize Kiaochow.

FORCE OF GERMANS IS OVERWHELMING

Two or Three Army Corps Moving Through Belgium.

London, Aug. 21.—Military men characterized the German force which is moving across Belgium as overwhelming, saying it consists of at least two or three army corps. The advance of this huge force is covered over the entire thirty-mile front by a screen of cavalry. The Germans had no difficulty in taking Louvain, which was virtually undefended.

In the high wooded country between Louvain and Brussels the Germans found an excellent defensive position. Having occupied Louvain the Germans pushed forward with great celerity, the cavalry opening out in fan shaped formation, spreading across country.

At one point they ran into a strong force of Belgian artillery, which punished them severely. Later a Belgian scouting force reached Louvain and found it unoccupied, but received imperative orders to fall back because of the danger of being outflanked and annihilated.

Ships Reported Damaged.

London, Aug. 21.—The Daily Mail's Constantinople correspondent says that merchantment report that the former German cruiser Breslau's funnels have been damaged and that its companion ship apparently had been hit on the water line by a projectile.

The Letter X.

The letter "X" appears but once in English for every six times it occurs in French.

MOVEMENTS OF FRENCH ARMY

Special to The Dispatch:

Paris, Aug. 21, 11:10 A. M.—While the French army from Belort is moving rapidly northward, clearing upper Alsace of Germans, the troops operating in Lorraine are encountering strong resistance.

MAY TURN DOWN PROPOSAL

United States Not Likely to Accept China's Offer.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Most significant of the day's developments in the European situation here was the inquiry of the Chinese government of the United States whether the latter would undertake the trusteeship of the territory of Kiaochow, transferring it immediately from Germany to China.

China's inquiry was understood to have been based on an acquiescence of Germany in such a plan, hoping thereby to avert a war with Japan. While officials generally were reticent to express any opinions it was believed that the American government would not accept the proposal of China unless Japan and Great Britain formally assented.

President Wilson and Secretary Bryan thus far scrupulously have avoided involving the United States in any way in the situation and there is every indication that this attitude will be maintained strictly.

PLAN TO RELIEVE DISTRESS

Government Urges Fight Against Internal Misery.

Paris, Aug. 21.—A warning issued by the French government says that while one great struggle is in progress on the frontiers another fight must be fought in the interior of the country against the misery which follows the disorder in its economic life.

The prefecture of police in Paris estimates that 600,000 are out of work in the French capital and its suburbs, or nearly one-sixth of the total population of the department of the Seine.

All the old men and youths in the building trades are to be put to work finishing the buildings under construction. Factories will be reopened and will employ limited forces. Far-reaching charitable work, supported by the government, is being organized.

SWORD MUST DECIDE, SAYS GERMAN KAISER.

London, Aug. 21.—A Marconi wireless message from Berlin tells of the German emperor's farewell address to the first regiment of foot guards.

They had assembled, the emperor said, to pray that German arms might be blessed, so that they should be able to keep flying the flag of the fatherland despite the envy of its enemies, even if this entailed the sacrificing of the last drop of German blood.

GERMANS PASSING THE RIVER MEUSE

No French territory is occupied by the enemy except a piece of enclosed land at Audun-Le-Ronan in the department of Meurthe and Moselle.

FRENCH CLAIM ANOTHER VICTORY

Special to The Dispatch:

London, Aug. 21, 2:55 P. M.—A dispatch from Paris says the French forces defeated a detachment of German cavalry coming from Leopoldshoehe and Hueningen near Basel. The Germans retired in the direction of St. Louis, leaving 500 dead and wounded on the field.

JAPAN GIVES CAUSE FOR ULTIMATUM TO GERMANY.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Interference by German cruisers with the shipping of Japan's ally, Great Britain, with the seizure of Japanese goods in German bottoms and the consequent grave disturbance of Japanese trade are the principal reasons set forward by Japan in explanation of the ultimatum delivered to Germany last Sunday.

Lucky He Was Saved.

"You can't convince me," said the little man with the ragged trousers, "that you can bring up children right by talking to 'em and lettin' it go at that. You've got to use the rod, or you'll spoil the child. I used to git about three lickin's a day on the average."

"It doesn't seem to have done much for you," replied the lady with the protruding jaw.

"It done a lot for me. If they'd let me go my own way I might almost of been a failure in life."—Judge.

Equine Evolution.

Ages ago the horse was an animal no larger than a fox terrier. Today the species has gone so far ahead that the elephantine horses seen on the Liverpool docks are the wonder of everybody who has seen them, and one of these horses is able to do as much pulling as three ordinary horses which have not been bred in a similar manner.—London Answers.

FRENCH CHARGE CRUELTY

Allege Germans Tortured Wounded.

CLAIM VIOLATION OF HAGUE CONVENTION

Government Will Address Note to Signatory Powers.

London, Aug. 21.—Telegraphing from Paris, Reuter's correspondent sends the following:

"The French government is addressing a note to the powers signatory to the Hague convention of October, 1907, pointing out that the German military authorities have violated the articles of the convention in that, on Aug. 10, this year, according to a communication from the general in command of the eastern forces, German troops dispatched several wounded by firing shots in their faces and that the wounds of other injured people deliberately were made worse by being torn open."

The correspondent adds that the note will say further:

"Also on that same date Bavarian foot soldiers in the Motigny and Montreaux districts systematically fired villages through which they passed without the slightest provocation and villagers were forced to precede the German scouts on the march."

"On Aug. 11 German troops burned villages, massacred their residents and drove before them women and children to the battlefield and on other occasions they murdered prisoners and shot the wounded."

"The French government will leave to the earnest consideration of the powers such reprehensible acts and criminal deeds that never before have so dishonored civilized belligerents."

FRENCH WILL INVESTIGATE

Government to Probe Stories of German Cruelty.

Paris, Aug. 21.—The government decided to make a thorough and comparative investigation of alleged German cruelties, the list of which is declared here to be increasing day by day.

The record is to include all cases since the beginning of the tension between France and Germany. The inquiries will be conducted systematically. Witnesses will be heard and testimony recorded.

RUSSIANS CLAIM VICTORIES

General Staff Issues Account of Operations.

London, Aug. 21.—A dispatch to the Reuter Telegram company from St. Petersburg gives a communication issued by the Russian general staff covering the operations of the army from Aug. 15 to Aug. 19, in which successes are claimed for the Russian army in skirmishes on both the Austrian and German frontiers.

"Austrian cavalry which entered Russian Poland at Kielce, Bijniza and other ports," says the communication, "were driven back with great casualties, while Austrian infantry, which attacked Krasnik, was defeated and lost heavily. The Russians took 250 prisoners. On the Prussian frontier the Russians took the offensive near Windballen, captured Lyk and took eight German guns and two quick firers."

COSSACKS SUFFER DEFEAT

Austrians Surprise Russian Detachment of Cavalry.

London, Aug. 21.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from Cracow says Austrian troops have occupied the town of Miechow, Russian Poland, after a stiff fight with Cossacks.

The Austrians surprised a detachment of 1,000 Cossacks while they slept and succeeded in killing or wounding 400 of them. The Austrian casualties are given as 140.

Insists Upon American Crew.

Washington, Aug. 21.—The British government has imposed as a condition to the admission of a German relief ship to British waters that it should fly the American flag and be manned by American officers. The purpose is to prevent the disclosure of the defensive plans of the British harbors to Germans who now officer the vessels in which it is proposed to bring home American refugees.

GENERAL CARRANZA.

Enters Mexican Capital as Provisional President.

ENTERS MEXICAN CAPITAL

General Carranza Is Now Provisional President.

Mexico City, Aug. 21.—General Venustiano Carranza, supreme chief of the Mexican revolution, and from now on provisional president of the republic, entered the capital. He was given an enthusiastic reception by the crowds on the streets.

It is estimated that more than 150,000 persons crowded the line of march of the new president and his followers, which extended from the village of Atzacotalco to the national palace, a distance of six miles.

BELGIANS REPULSED IN TERRIFIC CLASH

Seven of 288 in Rear Guard Survive Attack of Germans.

London, Aug. 21.—A dispatch from Reuter's News agency from Ghent, Belgium, says:

"Fighting at Aerschot was extremely hot. The appearance of two German aviators was the first intimation that the Germans, who had been repulsed on the previous evening, intended to renew the attack."

"Flying low the German aviators surveyed the positions and then returned to report."

"Soon afterward the German infantry, supported by machine guns and artillery, opened a fierce attack. The Belgians were outnumbered, but made desperate resistance."

"The troops on both sides fought fiercely and the battle zone became a butchery."

"Two Belgian regiments which already had distinguished themselves in the forts of Liege held the invaders in check for two hours."

"Both sides were losing heavily when the retreat was sounded."

"Major Gilson, whose nose had been broken by a bullet, took charge of the Belgian rear guard, which fought so stubbornly that only seven out of his force of 288 men returned."

GERMANS PUBLISH THIRD LIST OF CASUALTIES.

London, Aug. 21.—Telegraphing from Copenhagen the correspondent of the Daily Mail says that the third list of German casualties, aggregating about 1,000 men killed or wounded, mainly infantrymen, has been published in Berlin.

The correspondent adds that the Cologne Gazette confirms the report that Prince Frederick William of Lippe was killed before Liege.

SHIPS CARRY LIGHT LOADS

Leave New York for England Only Partly Filled.

New York, Aug. 21.—Every ship that sails out of New York for England these days sails light, though England is begging for food.

The liner Celtic left with 5,000 tons of foodstuffs in her hold, when she might have carried 16,000 tons. The Kronland left the other day with 4,500 with room for 8,000 more.

The Adriatic, St. Paul, New York, Philadelphia and others of the thirteen ships of the International Mercantile Marine company, which have departed for England since the war started, have ridden high in the water because of their lightness of cargo. Other lines tell the same story.

SISTER QUICKLY FOLLOWS POPE

FUNERAL WILL BE SIMPLE

Preparations in Progress at the Vatican for Services and Holding of a Conclave to Elect New Pope—Remains of Pope Pius X. Are Lying in State for Thousands to View.

Rome, Aug. 21.—The body of Pope Pius X. has been laid out in state for thousands to view. The pathos of his passing has been accentuated by the death of his sister Anna. Always she was at his bedside in times of sickness and she was kneeling near him when he breathed his last.

The sister was assisted from the room and collapsed soon afterwards. Dr. Amici attended her, but alarming symptoms developed, with high fever, from which she did not rally.

The day broke cloudy and heavy after exquisitely clear skies. It seemed as though nature was in mourning for the pope, most beloved by the people of Rome.

Around the Vatican many gathered. The great doors were half closed and those who mourned spoke in whispers. Within the Vatican preparations were in progress for the funeral ceremonies, which will be of a simple nature, and for the holding of the conclave for the election of a new pope.

Conclave in September.

It is expected that the conclave will be held early in September, even though all the cardinals are not in Rome. The new pope will be the first pontiff elected without the veto previously accorded foreign powers, as one of the first acts of Pius X. was to suppress this privilege of centuries, although he owed his own election to it.

The cardinals met at the Vatican. All wore violet capes as a sign of mourning. Cardinal Della Volpe and Merry del Val went to the pope's apartment to affix seals on the late pontiff's private papers and belongings.

The cardinals visited the death chamber, where they viewed the body of the pope, which lay on a sleeping bier, covered with a white cloth, under a rich red canopy. The body was clothed in a white robe and red cape. Red silk gloves covered the hands, on the fingers of which glittered the rings of his office. A mitre of cloth of gold was on his head.

The face of the late pontiff was startlingly waxen. In profile it was quite recognizable, but sadly changed. All knelt and after prayer some of the cardinals handed to the monks standing on each side of the body their crucifixes and medals, which the consignors laid for a moment on the dead fingers.

BELGIAN ARMY FALLS BACK

Troops Retire Towards Thier Base at Antwerp.

Washington, Aug. 21.—An official explanation of the Belgian field army's backward movement toward Antwerp was given in the following cablegram from London, made public by the British embassy:

"The Belgian field army, based on Antwerp, has fallen back in that direction in order to cover its communication with that fortress. In anticipation that this might become necessary the seat of government had already been transferred from Brussels to Antwerp."

"As Brussels is an undefended city and no longer the seat of government the fact that the Germans may have occupied it is not of great importance. Moreover, the present position of the Belgian field army is a menace to the right flank of any further German advance westward."

EXPOSED TO SUDDEN RAID

Reason for the Belgian Evacuation of Brussels.

Paris, Aug. 21.—The Temps publishes an explanation of why the seat of the Belgian government was transferred from Brussels to Antwerp. The statement, credited to an anonymous member of the Belgian cabinet, is as follows:

"The Belgian army has not sufficient cavalry to engage and repel the vast curtain of German horsemen which covers the two banks of the river Meuse and which is advancing toward Brussels. The capital was exposed to a sudden raid and it was simple prudence to retire."

Charter Nine Relief Ships.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Nine steamers, some of them already under way, have been chartered by diplomatic officers of the United States as auxiliaries to ships of regular lines in moving Americans from Europe.

FUNERAL WILL BE SIMPLE

Preparations in Progress at the Vatican for Services and Holding of a Conclave to Elect New Pope—Remains of Pope Pius Are Lying in State for Thousands to View.

Rome, Aug. 21.—The body of Pope Pius X. has been laid out in state for thousands to view. The pathos of his passing has been accentuated by the death of his sister Anna. Always she was at his bedside in times of sickness and she was kneeling near him when he breathed his last.

The sister was assisted from the room and collapsed soon afterwards. Dr. Amici attended her, but alarming symptoms developed, with high fever, from which she did not rally.

The day broke cloudy and heavy after exquisitely clear skies. It seemed as though nature was in mourning for the pope, most beloved by the people of Rome.

Around the Vatican many gathered. The great doors were half closed and those who mourned spoke in whispers. Within the Vatican preparations were in progress for the funeral ceremonies, which will be of a simple nature, and for the holding of the conclave for the election of a new pope.

Conclave in September.

It is expected that the conclave will be held early in September, even though all the cardinals are not in Rome. The new pope will be the first pontiff elected without the veto previously accorded foreign powers, as one of the first acts of Pius X. was to suppress this privilege of centuries, although he owed his own election to it.

The cardinals met at the Vatican. All wore violet capes as a sign of mourning. Cardinal Della Volpe and Merry del Val went to the pope's remains to affix seals on the late pontiff's private papers and belongings.

The cardinals visited the death chamber, where they viewed the body of the pope, which lay on a sleeping bier, covered with a white cloth, under a rich red canopy. The body was clothed in a white robe and red cape. Red silk gloves covered the hands, on the fingers of which glittered the rings of his office. A mitre of cloth of gold was on his head.

The face of the late pontiff was startling waxen. In profile it was quite recognizable, but sadly changed. All knelt and after prayer some of the cardinals handed to the monsignors standing on each side of the body their crucifixes and medals, which the consignors laid for a moment on the dead fingers.

BELGIAN ARMY FALLS BACK

Troops Retire Towards Thier Base at Antwerp.

Washington, Aug. 21.—An official explanation of the Belgian field army's backward movement toward Antwerp was given in the following cablegram from London, made public by the British embassy:

"The Belgian field army, based on Antwerp, has fallen back in that direction in order to cover its communication with that fortress. In anticipation that this might become necessary the seat of government had already been transferred from Brussels to Antwerp."

"As Brussels is an undefended city and no longer the seat of government the fact that the Germans may have occupied it is not of great importance. Moreover, the present position of the Belgian field army is a menace to the right flank of any further German advance westward."

EXPOSED TO SUDDEN RAID

Reason for the Belgian Evacuation of Brussels.

Paris, Aug. 21.—The Temps publishes an explanation of why the seat of the Belgian government was transferred from Brussels to Antwerp. The statement, credited to an anonymous member of the Belgian cabinet, is as follows:

"The Belgian army has not sufficient cavalry to engage and repel the vast curtain of German horsemen which covers the two banks of the river Meuse and which is advancing toward Brussels. The capital was exposed to a sudden raid and it was simple prudence to retire."

Charter Nine Relief Ships.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Nine steamers, some of them already under way, have been chartered by diplomatic officers of the United States as auxiliaries to ships of regular lines in moving Americans from Europe.

SOME housekeepers use ordinary laundry soap for washing dishes. At the same time they spend considerable money on lotions, creams, etc., in an effort, usually unsuccessful, to preserve their hands from the roughening effects of the soap.

Other housekeepers use nothing but Ivory Soap. Knowing that it cannot harm the tenderest skin, they deem its use a true economy. And then they have the satisfaction of knowing that their glassware, silver and china are scrupulously clean.

Which housekeepers are the wiser?

TO ENLARGE POWER PLANT

Cuyuna Range Power Company to Install an Additional Unit Early in September

INCREASES CAPACITY 1000 H. P.

Since Completion of Dam Enough Water Has Been Allowed to Run Extra Unit

The Cuyuna Range Power Co. has purchased another unit and will install the same at its dam on the Crow Wing river near Brainerd.

The unit includes another set of water wheels and a generator, having a capacity of 1,000 horsepower and making the total capacity 3,000 horsepower. Work will commence on the addition early in September and will be completed in 60 days. Since the completion of the dam an abundance of water has been wasted sufficiently large to run the additional unit practically all the time.

The S. Morgan Smith water wheel consists of two 48-inch wheels connected on one shaft. The generator is of 600 kilowatt capacity and a duplicate to those now installed.

The Cuyuna Range Power Co. now furnishes light and power to Brainerd, Crosby, Cuyuna, Oreland, Iron-ton, Riverton, Deerwood and many mines and farms. A pole line is projected to Pillager.

That Crow Wing county is in the corn belt can be easily demonstrated by seeing the fine specimen of corn on display at the Citizens State bank. On the Henry Stedfeldt farm in South Long Lake corn of the Minnesota 13 variety has fully matured, thus equalling Iowa or Wisconsin corn. The ear is almost perfect, all kernels being large and well formed. If you want to stimulate your faith in Crow Wing county just take a look at that corn.

PREPARING FOR COUNTY EXHIBIT

Agricultural and Publicity Committees of Chamber of Commerce Report Progress

BOOTH AT THE STATE FAIR

County to be Advertised by Comprehensive Exhibit and Literature of Various Kinds

Crow Wing county will have a comprehensive exhibit at the Minnesota state fair, one which may even win a prize. At the Chamber of Commerce committee meetings of the agricultural committee and the publicity committee this morning progress was reported.

There were present of the agricultural committee F. H. Gruenhagen, the chairman, and County Agricultural Agent A. J. Gaffke, P. M. Zakariassen and R. B. Withington. Of the publicity committee there were present H. F. Michael, chairman, and John A. Hoffbauer and P. B. Nettleton, also R. M. Sheets and Frank G. Hall.

Secretary Charles E. Hansing and County Agricultural Agent Gaffke made a statement of their tour in stirring up interest in the county exhibit at the state fair and had a list of names of those who promised to donate samples of grain, grasses, etc. All contributions should be at Brainerd by August 29.

Secretary Hansing described the booth. It is to have a white lattice in front studded with electric lights. Gold letters, raised to make them more noticeable, were to carry the inscription, "Crow Wing County." Two black crows on the sides and a large one on a perch in the center were to be added as decorative features.

Gathering the various samples calls for work on the part of those owning automobiles. F. H. Gruenhagen volunteered to spend two half days in the work, George H. Gardner a day. It was believed that O. A. Peterson, E. C. Bane, James M. Elder, J. R. Smith and Dr. Werner Hemstead would also volunteer their services. R. B. Withington said he would go if he was not in Dakota at the time. Mr. Gaffke said he would go.

Mr. Gaffke said there should be at least 400 samples of potatoes.

F. H. Gruenhagen read the tentative budget for the cost of the county exhibit which included $75 for the booth, shelving and electric wiring, etc., $25 gathering grain, $25 freight, $25 baskets and jars, $25 railway fare, $75 hotel bills, $100 publicity, $25 incidentals, a total of $375. Iver Benson had said he would go down and stay at the booth if railway fare was paid. G. A. Beale, it was said, would soon go down to arrange the booth.

It was decided to print 5,000 four-page folders descriptive of the resources of the county including dairying, potatoes, clover, alfalfa, corn, beef cattle, sheep, etc.

Mr. Nettleton urged that room be given to opportunities in Brainerd and the county.

Mr. Gruenhagen urged that the meeting of the Crop Association and the Northern Development Association in Brainerd in December be given the widest publicity in the literature and at the booth.

On next Tuesday and Wednesday the management announces the opening of a new series featuring Marc McDermott in "The Man Who Disappeared." Another series will soon begin called the "Railroad Series." These pictures will come once every week and each one will deal with life on the railroad made in the form of dramas. ## GIRLS AND BOYS PROMINENT PART

Only Four Counties in the State Will be Unrepresented in the Fair Boys Camp This Year

COUNTY SPELLING CONTEST

The Corn Show Will Also be one of the Features, the Boys' Department to be Represented

The girls and boys of the northwest will take a prominent part at the Minnesota state fair, Sept. 7 to 12. Perhaps no fair was ever held where children will find so much to do. From Monday, the opening day, when all children accompanied by an adult will be admitted free, until Saturday evening, when the fair closes, thousands of children will have the time of their lives.

Perhaps the greatest children's feature at the Minnesota state fair will be the Farm Boys' Camp. Over 140 boys from the rural districts will belong to this camp. Last year there were 104 boys in the camp. This year the camp will be the largest one ever held in America, and it is certain to attract national attention. A permanent building, called the Farm Boys' Camp building, has been set aside for the boys on the crest of Machinery Hill.

Only four counties in Minnesota will be unrepresented in the Farm Boys' Camp this year. In addition to the 82 boys selected in essay contests, there will be 26 boys selected from the congressional districts as units, four boys sent to the fair from the West Central and Northwest Minnesota Development Associations, and 30 boys from the State Agricultural school at Morris. The boys from the congressional districts have been members of previous camps. All but a few minor expenses will be paid by the fair. During the week the boys will spend part of their time ushering in the grandstand and livestock pavilion. Specialists will take them on tours about the grounds at other times, explaining various exhibits.

Another feature not to be forgotten is the spelling contest, in which George F. Howard, in charge, asserts over 100 children will take part. Nearly forty counties have already sent in the names of their representatives, two children being sent from each county. These children have been selected by elimination spelling contests held in the counties since last fall. There is certain to be strenuous competition when these boys and girls meet to decide the spelling championship of the state.

Beginning at 10 o'clock, Friday morning, Sept. 11, a written contest will be held in which each child will be given a list of 100 words selected by three disinterested judges. In the afternoon the oral contest will be held. Easy words will be given first, although Mr. Howard expects to end up in the dictionary, so much respect does he have for the ability of the contestants. Last year three books were used before the champion was picked.

This year, in addition to the regular corn show, which promises to be larger than last year, a boys' corn show is to be held in which boys who took part in the 1913 acre-yield corn contest will compete. It is expected that a large show of corn will result from this innovation. Many entries of corn have been made, and there will be keen competition between the different sections of the state to determine which is supreme in the world of corn. Liberal prizes are offered. The show will be a prominent feature.

Barrows People to Meet August 20 at the Town Hall and Listen to An Address

NEW CREAMERY FOR BARROWS

R. C. Klinkenberg Sold 16 Lots—Sold Within the Past Week in Barrows

Barrows, Minn., August 21—William Seafeld of the Seafeld Exploration company, was in town Tuesday looking after drills in section 16 and 9.

Nels Olson, John Broten of Superior and Theo. Dahljelm of Duluth were here the first of the week making an inspection of all the drills about town.

J. C. Anderson and Charles Thoreson of Duluth were visitors Sunday looking over the property of the Barrows Realty Co.

John Wahl of Duluth, R. C. Klinkenberg and H. A. Peterson of Barrows paid a visit to the Farmer's club who held their monthly meeting at Fred Johnson's place three miles south of town. The matter of starting a creamery was brought up and Barrows was suggested as the nearest place and most central location to haul cream to.

Drills in section 16 have been in ore for several days and it is reported to be of the Bessemer kind.

E. L. Guinn is making hay while the sun shines on the J. W. Porter farm and reports a very heavy crop.

R. C. Klinkenberg, secretary of the Barrows Realty Co., reports 16 lots sold within the last week.

There will be a big meeting here August 20th, at the town hall on the subject of school consolidation. A representative from the state board of education will deliver the speech. Everyone is invited to attend the meeting. We may all find out a little more how to get more money from the state to aid in the education of our children without any further taxation on the property owners. Everybody come.

A. J. Gaffke, the county agricultural agent, was inspecting the cows in this vicinity. We trust there are no poor ones in this locality at the present, as there is plenty of feed here.

If the war in Europe continues, the new mines at Barrows will have a good market for their high grade ore to make cannon and armor plate for the large battle ships.

Mary Pickford and Lillian Walker both shared honors last night in one of the brightest and most interesting shows imaginable. "The Threads of Destiny" did not give Little Mary a chance to display just those characteristics that have made her famous but was thoroughly enjoyed and was a distinct novelty. Lillian Walker appeared to great advantage in a 2-reel Vitagraph comedy, "Mother Love" produced by Lubin was excellent. On next Tuesday and Wednesday the management announces the opening of a new series featuring Marc McDermott in "The Man Who Disappeared." Another series will soon begin called the "Railroad Series." These pictures will come once every week and each one will deal with life on the railroad made in the form of dramas. A contract has been made with the Southern Pacific for the production of them and a mammoth stage has even been erected in the midst of their California terminal to have real atmosphere.

GIRLS AND BOYS PROMINENT PART

Only Four Counties in the State Will be Unrepresented in the Fair Boys Camp This Year

COUNTY SPELLING CONTEST

The Corn Show Will Also be one of the Features, the Boys' Department to be Represented

The girls and boys of the northwest will take a prominent part at the Minnesota state fair, Sept. 7 to 12. Perhaps no fair was ever held where children will find so much to do. From Monday, the opening day, when all children accompanied by an adult will be admitted free, until Saturday evening, when the fair closes, thousands of children will have the time of their lives.

Perhaps the greatest children's feature at the Minnesota state fair will be the Farm Boys' Camp. Over 140 boys from the rural districts will belong to this camp. Last year there were 104 boys in the camp. This year the camp will be the largest one ever held in America, and it is certain to attract national attention. A permanent building, called the Farm Boys' Camp building, has been set aside for the boys on the crest of Machinery Hill.

Only four counties in Minnesota will be unrepresented in the Farm Boys' Camp this year. In addition to the 82 boys selected in essay contests, there will be 26 boys selected from the congressional districts as units, four boys sent to the fair from the West Central and Northwest Minnesota Development Associations, and 30 boys from the State Agricultural school at Morris. The boys from the congressional districts have been members of previous camps. All but a few minor expenses will be paid by the fair. During the week the boys will spend part of their time ushering in the grandstand and livestock pavilion. Specialists will take them on tours about the grounds at other times, explaining various exhibits.

Another feature not to be forgotten is the spelling contest, in which George F. Howard, in charge, asserts over 100 children will take part. Nearly forty counties have already sent in the names of their representatives, two children being sent from each county. These children have been selected by elimination spelling contests held in the counties since last fall. There is certain to be strenuous competition when these boys and girls meet to decide the spelling championship of the state.

Beginning at 10 o'clock, Friday morning, Sept. 11, a written contest will be held in which each child will be given a list of 100 words selected by three disinterested judges. In the afternoon the oral contest will be held. Easy words will be given first, although Mr. Howard expects to end up in the dictionary, so much respect does he have for the ability of the contestants. Last year three books were used before the champion was picked.

This year, in addition to the regular corn show, which promises to be larger than last year, a boys' corn show is to be held in which boys who took part in the 1913 acre-yield corn contest will compete. It is expected that a large show of corn will result from this innovation. Many entries of corn have been made, and there will be keen competition between the different sections of the state to determine which is supreme in the world of corn. Liberal prizes are offered. The show will be a prominent feature.

Barrows People to Meet August 20 at the Town Hall and Listen to An Address

NEW CREAMERY FOR BARROWS

R. C. Klinkenberg Sold 16 Lots—Sold Within the Past Week in Barrows

Barrows, Minn., August 21—William Seafeld of the Seafeld Exploration company, was in town Tuesday looking after drills in section 16 and 9.

Nels Olson, John Broten of Superior and Theo. Dahljeim of Duluth were here the first of the week making an inspection of all the drills about town.

J. C. Anderson and Charles Thoreson of Duluth were visitors Sunday looking over the property of the Barrows Realty Co.

John Wahl of Duluth, R. C. Klinkenberg and H. A. Peterson of Barrows paid a visit to the Farmer's club who held their monthly meeting at Fred Johnson's place three miles south of town. The matter of starting a creamery was brought up and Barrows was suggested as the nearest place and most central location to haul cream to.

Drills in section 16 have been in ore for several days and it is reported to be of the Bessemer kind.

E. L. Guinn is making hay while the sun shines on the J. W. Porter farm and reports a very heavy crop.

R. C. Klinkenberg, secretary of the Barrows Realty Co., reports 16 lots sold within the last week.

There will be a big meeting here August 20th, at the town hall on the subject of school consolidation. A representative from the state board of education will deliver the speech. Everyone is invited to attend the meeting. We may all find out a little more how to get more money from the state to aid in the education of our children without any further taxation on the property owners. Everybody come.

A. J. Gaffke, the county agricultural agent, was inspecting the cows in this vicinity. We trust there are no poor ones in this locality at the present, as there is plenty of feed here.

If the war in Europe continues, the new mines at Barrows will have a good market for their high grade ore to make cannon and armor plate for the large battle ships.

Staged last winter, during one of the tremendous snow storms which swept over the Eastern coast of America, the company, headed by Mr. Lund, Barbara Tennant, Lindsay Hall and Bert Starkey, made a special trip into the Canadian woods. Here the company secured great atmosphere, some unusually picturesque settings while a terrific snow storm was under way. It is an emotional story of blighted love, great sacrifices and villainy. Miss Tennant, in the role of the girl who sacrificed her whole life's happiness that her sweetheart's life may be saved, does a sympathetic and altogether charming piece of work.

Two More Fleets Needed For Protection of Coasts.

MORE TERRITORY TO GUARD

European War Demonstrates How Nations of World Band Themselves Together, and in Time of War United States Would Probably Be Attacked on Both Sides at Once.

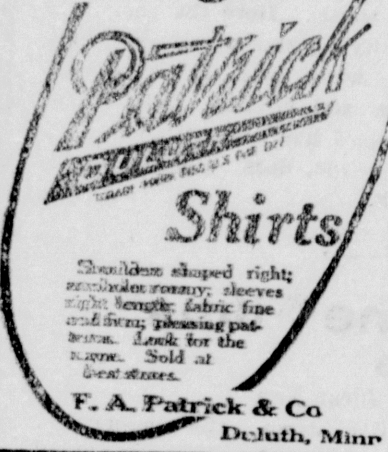

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Aug. 21.—(Special.)—There are men of high rank in the United States navy who have given a great deal of careful attention to everything pertaining to Panama. They have privately declared that the canal is a menace rather than an asset to the United States from a military point of view.

These officers point out that the United States without the canal and the fleet in both oceans was practically impregnable against attack by a foe either in the Pacific or Atlantic. They say that now we will be obliged to maintain a large army in the canal zone and a powerful squadron in each of the oceans to protect it if war should be declared upon this country.

The theory of the canal as a national defense was that the fleet could be transferred from the Pacific to the Atlantic if the United States should be attacked by one of the European powers.

rs. If it should be attacked from the Pacific side the fleet on the Atlantic could go through the canal and be used against the enemy in that ocean. That was all right until this European war showed how nations of the world are knit together by alliances. Austria started to discipline little Serbia, and the whole house of cards fell, and all Europe tumbled into war, with Japan an aggressive ally of England in the far east. In case the United States should go to war with any one of the countries it is likely that it would have two or three of the allies as antagonists. Fleets would be needed in both the Atlantic and the Pacific and at each end of the canal.

Perhaps these naval officers had this in view when they said that the canal would be a menace to the United States in case of war.

Never Again.

Congressman Kahn of California was making a speech in the house, and he read from the civil service plank in the Democratic platform in favor of civil service reform at a time when the Democrats were legislating to take some of the officers from under the civil service blanket.

"There are a dozen planks in that platform which have been violated," he said, shaking his hand at the Democratic side. "Although you declared that your platform was one of principles and intended to be kept, it means nothing. It was put forth as molasses to catch flies."

"It caught them too," remarked Cox of Indiana.

"Yes," retorted Kahn; "but you will never catch them again."

Test of Democracy.

Congressman Kindel of Colorado had had his Democracy questioned and in a speech in the house told about it. "I went to call on his highness the secretary of state," he said. "He wanted to know if I was a Democrat. 'Yes,' I said; 'I voted for you three times and would vote for you again if you were right.'"

Knows Chemicals.

Congressman Metz of New York is one man in the house who knows all about chemicals. Probably he could not tell as much as Sereno E. Payne, but he knows about all those chemicals which enter into his large manufacturing business. He had an interested audience in the house recently when he told how all sorts of dyestuffs would be affected by the war in Europe. Unless something can be done manufacturers of cloth will have to stop business or send out undyed material. Drugs needed for medicine are unobtainable on account of stopping of traffic with Europe.

Rural Credits Lag.

Although the house has embarked upon a series of conservation and land measures which will occupy much time, there still seems to be no disposition among the men in control to pass the rural credits bill.

There was a great deal of complaint several months ago because this bill was left out of the president's program. Now, as the house goes forward with conservation measures—which were not on the program—there is considerable complaint among the advocates of the rural credit measure. The probabilities are that this bill will not be considered at this time. Perhaps the demand for it is not as great as it was earlier in the session.

Limiting the Tenure of Office.

Congressman Moon of Tennessee has offered a proposed amendment to the constitution which would limit the tenure of office for all federal appointees to fifteen years. It is hard to get constitutional amendments through congress, but there is a growing sentiment in favor of limiting the terms of all federal officers.

Quick Growing Rice.

In Sim there is under cultivation a common sort of rice which in flood times grows as much as a foot in twelve hours, so that the plant often attains a height of ten feet in its efforts to keep its leaves above water.

No Fresh Air For Him.
No doctor would ever have made Lord Brampton—best remembered as Sir Henry Hawkins—subscribe to the new theory that it is beneficial to sit in a draft. He once expressed his preference for suffocation rather than chill on the ground that it was a slower death.—London Standard.

BRAINERD

It should be attacked from the Pacific side the fleet on the Atlantic could go through the canal and be used against the enemy in that ocean. That was all right until this European war showed how nations of the world are knit together by alliances. Austria started to discipline little Serbia, and the whole house of cards fell, and all Europe tumbled into war, with Japan an aggressive ally of England in the far east. In case the United States should go to war with any one of the countries it is likely that it would have two or three of the allies as antagonists. Fleets would be needed in both the Atlantic and the Pacific and at each end of the canal.

Perhaps these naval officers had this in view when they said that the canal would be a menace to the United States in case of war.

Never Again.

Congressman Kahn of California was making a speech in the house, and he read from the civil service plank in the Democratic platform in favor of civil service reform at a time when the Democrats were legislating to take some of the officers from under the civil service blanket.

"There are a dozen planks in that platform which have been violated," he said, shaking his hand at the Democratic side. "Although you declared that your platform was one of principles and intended to be kept, it means nothing. It was put forth as molasses to catch flies."

"It caught them too," remarked Cox of Indiana.

"Yes," retorted Kahn; "but you will never catch them again."

Test of Democracy.

Congressman Kindel of Colorado had had his Democracy questioned and in a speech in the house told about it. "I went to call on his highness the secretary of state," he said. "He wanted to know if I was a Democrat. 'Yes,' I said; 'I voted for you three times and would vote for you again if you were right.'"

Knows Chemicals.

Congressman Metz of New York is one man in the house who knows all about chemicals. Probably he could not tell as much as Serebo E. Payne, but he knows about all those chemicals which enter into his large manufacturing business. He had an interested audience in the house recently when he told how all sorts of dyestuffs would be affected by the war in Europe. Unless something can be done manufacturers of cloth will have to stop business or send out undyed material. Drugs needed for medicine are unobtainable on account of stopping of traffic with Europe.

Rural Credits Lag.

Although the house has embarked upon a series of conservation and land measures which will occupy much time, there still seems to be no disposition among the men in control to pass the rural credits bill.

There was a great deal of complaint several months ago because this bill was left out of the president's program. Now, as the house goes forward with conservation measures—which were not on the program—there is considerable complaint among the advocates of the rural credit measure. The probabilities are that this bill will not be considered at this time. Perhaps the demand for it is not as great as it was earlier in the session.

Limiting the Tenure of Office.

Congressman Moon of Tennessee has offered a proposed amendment to the constitution which would limit the tenure of office for all federal appointments to fifteen years. It is hard to get constitutional amendments through congress, but there is a growing sentiment in favor of limiting the terms of all federal officers.

Quick Growing Rice.

In Siam there is under cultivation a common sort of rice which in flood times grows as much as a foot in twelve hours, so that the plant often attains a height of ten feet in its efforts to keep its leaves above water.

No Fresh Air For Him.
No doctor would ever have made Lord Brampton—best remembered as Sir Henry Hawkins—subscribe to the new theory that it is beneficial to sit in a draft. "Few people had a greater objection to fresh air than Hawkins," writes J. A. Foote, K. C. "At one time he had a sort of movable sentry box constructed for his use in court in order to prevent any possibility of a draft. He once expressed his preference for suffocation rather than chill on the ground that it was a slower death.—London Standard.

If you're sick and depressed, and all "out of sorts," there's nothing that will so quickly set you right as Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. One package makes over one hundred cups tea. At druggists, 35c. H. P. Dunn, druggist.—Advt. 16

For Baby's Bath.

If the baby is afraid of the water and cries and screams when taking his bath buy several prettily colored cork "bobbies" such as fishermen use. Throw these in the bathtub and baby will be so busy trying to catch them that he will forget to be afraid of his morning bath and will even learn to like it.—Mother's Magazine.

It's a laxative of course—and the nicest hot weather drink you ever tasted. Flushes thoroughly, and pleasantly, too. F. C. Chrysler, Syracuse, N. Y., says: "Have used laxatives for 15 years but this Citrolax has got everything else beat a mile." Try it. For sale by H. P. Dunn, druggist.—Advt. mwf
